

TAMMANY WILL SNUB THE DUKE.

CROKER DELIVERS HIMSELF OF AN AMAZING INTERVIEW.

Says that the Prince Will Not Be Insulted in New York, but He Will Leave It to the Four Hundred to Do the Back-Scratching and the Shoe-Licking.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—Richard Croker, when shown the statement in an American paper to the effect that the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York would be insulted by Tammany Hall if they visited New York City, immediately became excited and indignantly denied the story.

"Tammany men have no use for royalties," said he, "but, being gentlemen, every one of them, they are no more likely to insult visitors of any rank or nationality than are Englishmen to insult me here.

"If the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York go to New York, which I consider likely, Tammany Hall will simply ignore the circumstance of their visit, so far as any official formality is concerned, and leave to the members of the Four Hundred the very natural task of back-scratching and shoe-licking."

ROMANCER HAD TO TELL TRUTH.

DEAD BABY A MYTH, BUT HIS WIFE SICK, LITTLE SAYS.

Arrested for Striking a Policeman.
He Manned as He Told a Story of Misery that He Later Admitted to the Magistrate in Court Was Not True.

When John Little essayed the role of romancer he made a mistake that cost him $3. He told the police of the West Thirtieth street station that his wife lay suffering from a new stroke of paralysis, with her dead baby beside her.

Then with a wall of agony that seemed to come straight from his heart Little bemoaned his fate:

"All I wanted was the money I had earned with the sweat of my brow. I went to the foreman, but he refused and had me arrested. I was desperate, for I needed the cash to bury my baby and purchase food and medicine for my poor wife."

Little added he lived at No. 806 Second avenue. The police found that he did not. They discovered that he had been arrested by Special Officer Charles Hunt at the excavation at Broadway and Thirtieth street, where he worked as a laborer for George H. Fuller & Co.

He went there late yesterday and said that he had given up his job and wanted his money. Later Little became pugilistic and struck Officer Hunt, who arrested him.

Then came the romance.
Magistrate Mayo asked Little one question in Jefferson Market Court today:

"Is your baby dead, Little?"

"No-o, sir, my brother had a baby and—"

"Five dollars."

He had a friend who paid the fine.
As he left the courtroom Little said:
"But my wife is sick, honest."

METHODISTS IN YEARLY CAMP.

MEETING AT OSMING TO LAST TEN DAYS DRAWING MANY.

First Session Opens This Evening. and Cottages and Tents Are Rapidly Filling with Those Who Will Remain for the Entire Session.

The annual Methodist Episcopal Camp Meeting, which was known in the past as the "Bing Sing Camp Meeting," opens this evening on the old camp grounds, northeast of Osming, and will remain in session for ten days.
There are now about one hundred and twenty-five families on the ground, most of whom occupy cottages and tents, while others are accommodated in the big boarding-house in the grounds.

The meeting will be in charge of Dr.
Miller, presiding elder of the New York District, assisted by Revs. D. W.
Couch, A. C. Morehouse, Charles N.
Crittendon and others.

To-morrow will be Woman's Foreign Missionary day. Tuesday next children's day and Thursday reunion day, while a love feast will be held and old-time hymns sung. C. W. Noakes will be musical director and Miss Florence Noakes accompanist.

A. H. Brummell, Rev. A. C. Morehouse and C. N. Crittendon are the committee in charge.

Noted preachers will be heard during the session.

DIVORCE DETECTIVE SHOOT.
Bullet Was Aimed at Himself and Lodges in His Neck.

Joseph T. Mount, who says that he is a private detective and has worked in all of the large cities of the country, having been engaged on more than three hundred divorce cases, is a patient in Roosevelt Hospital with a bullet wound in the back of the neck.

9TH HALF-YEARLY TRADE SALE OF RELIABLE FURNITURE

The Ninth Half-Yearly Trade Sale of Furniture, less than a week old, has already developed into a veritable trade triumph! If public approval is to be the yardstick with which to measure the true worth—the real merit—of a sale—and no one will say otherwise—then our efforts have proved conclusively that in the important and essential points of Quality, Assortment and Price our Furniture Sale has eclipsed any and all the contemporaneous merchandise movements—for we have broken—day after day—the best previous sales records established in this business during former years!

We have planned this sale on a monumental scale! Months and months ago we canvassed the furniture field—selecting the best that America has produced for the Fall season of 1901—purchasing in quantities that insured lowest prices. Having two big stores (New York and Chicago), each of which sells more home furnishings than ten ordinary furniture stores put together, we can contract for the entire product of factories—control some of the best things altogether—and in many ways obtain concessions that small dealers would never dream of.

And Every Saving, Big or Small, Goes to You.

Buy your furniture now—buy your carpets and curtains now. You need not take them at once—we'll gladly store them for you for 60 days free of charge—and just see the money you will save! Why, you can furnish three rooms for what two rooms would cost you a month hence!

For to-morrow we quote some brilliant specials—but do not imagine that these are all the bargains we have for you. Not by any means. These are simply additions to the dozens of bargains already announced, and all of which, or most all of which, we will show you when you call!

THE BIG STORE SIEGEL COOPER & CO. A CITY IN ITSELF SIXTH AVE. MEET ME AT THE FOUNTAIN 10-15 STS.

Our Big Half-Yearly Sale of Men's and Youths' Trousers has taken the town by storm—over 8,000 pairs sold in one week, and the sale is growing larger as it proceeds.

But how could it be otherwise? Why shouldn't men buy two and three pairs when they can do so at the usual cost of one? Would you, would anybody, refuse such an opportunity? Certainly not.

We have 15,000 more pairs to sell—and we have no fear that it will take long to do it. Another week or ten days will see the last of them!
Don't wait too long—come now and get the trousers you want while we can show you large selections.

There are no job lots—no old or carried over trousers in this sale.

We guarantee that—and you'll admit that our word is good. And we'll also warrant every pair to be absolutely perfect—your money back should you differ with us!

Underwear

worth from 50c. to $1 per garment, will go on sale tomorrow at

We bought every piece of Summer Underwear that was in the largest mill in New England the other day at less than half its actual value because the manufacturers needed the room it occupied for their fall and winter products. If you need any more good underwear for wear between now and the fall here's a chance to get it cheap. If not, it will pay you to buy it and store it away until next summer, at which time you won't be able to get it at such a money-saving price.

There are dozens of choice colors and designs in the big purchase, all fitted with pearl buttons, heavy saten waist bands, double gusset on drawers, shirts plain or satin trimmed.

All sizes, yours included. Choice, per garment, only
